

LOCAL TALENT:
New Faces

1 New World by Emma Waddleton, acrylic on canvas, £475
Artweeks online

OX Magazine is delighted to support Oxfordshire artists and bring you behind-the-scenes stories of their creativity all year round. During this month's Oxfordshire Artweeks festival of open studios and pop-up exhibitions (3-26 May), we'd like to introduce you to 10 artists and makers who will be showing their work as part of the festival for the first time this year.

3

2 Photographic print by Fliss van Steenberg in A3 black wooden frame, £50
Artweeks venue 93
(Headington, Oxford)

3 Salt-glazed stoneware clay lidded jar with iron rich glaze by Isabelle Proffitt, £55
Artweeks venue 226 (Radley)

4 Pelargoniums by Hanna Cottrell, limited edition Giclee print, £48
Artweeks venue 240
(Brightwell-cum-Sotwell)

5 Flying High II by Kase Chauhan in acrylics, £500
Artweeks venue 424/544 (Witney)

6 An untitled limited edition Giclée print by Crimson Rose O'Shea, £265
Artweeks venue 107 (East Oxford)

4

5

7

7 Clare Saunders, The Duck Parade. Acrylic on paper, £250

Artweeks venue: 105 (Botley, Oxford)

8 Overload by Laura Pomarius in oil pastel on rag paper, £75

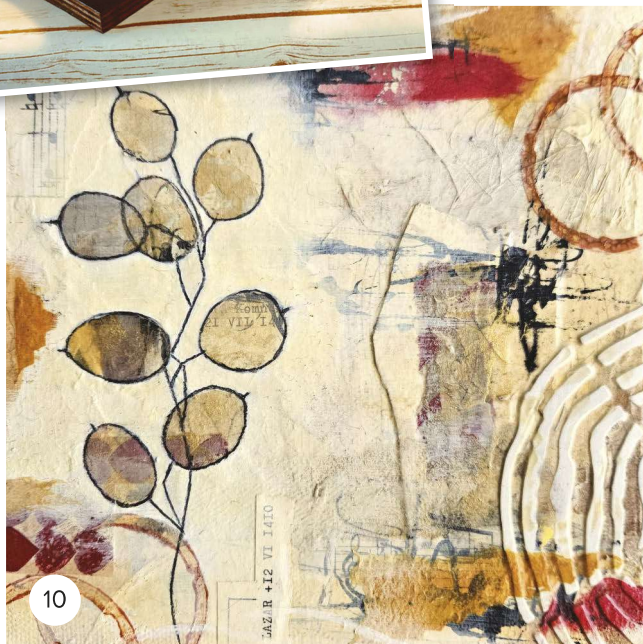

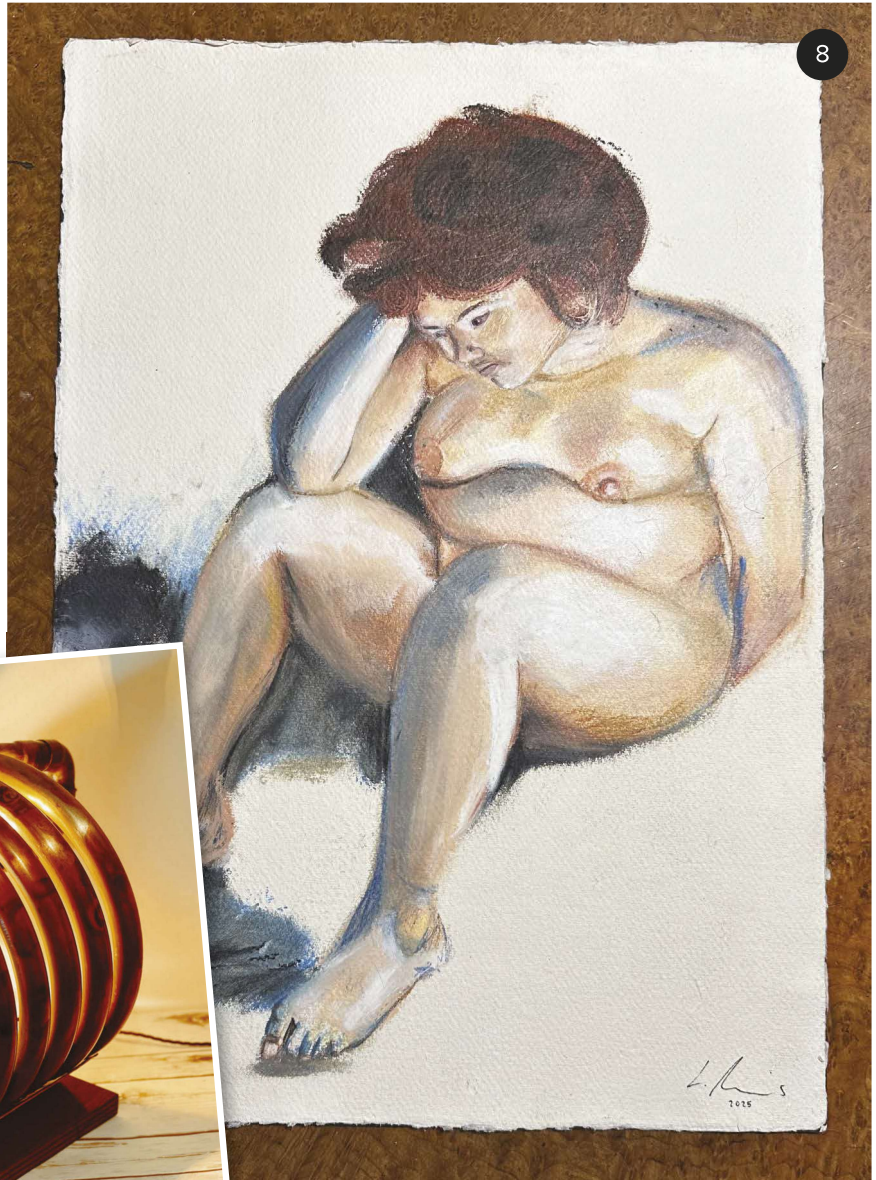

Artweeks venue 133, East Oxford

9 Copper coil lamp with stand by Dan Poole, £250

Artweeks venue 14 (Old Marston, Oxford)

10 Honesty by Louise Brook in acrylic and mixed media, £110

Artweeks venue 519 (Middleton Cheney)

For more information on these artists, venues and many more visit www.artweeks.org